DPS Officer dies in the line of duty Officer/Paramedic sustained fatal injuries during rescue mission

At about 3:18 p.m. today, an Arizona Department of Public Safety (DPS) Officer/Air Rescue Paramedic Bruce W. Harrolle was killed in the line of duty while performing a rescue of two stranded hikers 1.5 miles northwest of Doe Mountain and 1.5 miles southeast of Bear Mountain in the Sedona area. Officer Harrolle, 36, was a nine year veteran of DPS and is survived by his wife, two young children and his parents.

The incident occurred after the DPS Air Rescue Ranger Helicopter based in Flagstaff responded to a request from the Sedona Fire Department and the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office to assist with a search and rescue mission of two stranded and dehydrated hikers at about 2:40 p.m.

The DPS Special Investigations Unit is investigating this aviation incident. In addition, the National Traffic Safety Board (NTSB) will be heading to the scene to conduct their investigation of this aviation incident. More details will become available upon completion of the investigation.

This is a very trying and emotional time for the family, the friends of the officer, the DPS family, as well as the law enforcement and emergency medical community. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family of the officer. Funeral arrangements are pending and information about such services will be made available in the coming days. Prior to today's incident, DPS had not lost an officer in the line of duty since March of 2000.
